PREVAIL COUNSELING GROUP, PLLC

HIPAA & PRIVACY DOCUMENTS

“Welcome to our practice. We continually work to provide you with appropriate, high quality services. We believe that a client who understands and participates in his/her care will achieve better results. We have the responsibility to respect your rights, provide you the best possible care and acknowledge your rights as a client. The following has been prepared to inform you of your rights and responsibilities.”

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

During treatment at Prevaill Counseling Group, PLLC (PCG, PLLC) therapists gather information about your psychiatric, medical history and health. The information that identifies you and relates to your past, present, future physical or mental health is referred to as your PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION (PHI). This notice describes how your PHI may be used and disclosed and how you can gain access to this information. Please review this notice carefully.

Clients of PCG, PLLC are both adults and children. When we refer to “you” or “your” in this notice, we refer to the client. When we refer to types of disclosures of information to “you”, we mean disclosures of the client, the client’s guardian, or the person legally authorized to receive information about the client.

Please note, after you have read this notice, you will be asked to sign a separate consent form. Signing this form will allow us to use and disclose your PHI in the following ways:

- Treatment: We will use your information to provide, coordinate and manage care and treatment. For example, a therapist may consult with another health care provider, including PCG, PLLC clinicians, regarding the case or a referral.
- Payment: We will use information to receive payment for the services we provide. For example: we will disclose information in order to submit claims to insurance companies, third party payers, Medicare or Medicaid.
- Health Care Operations: We will use the information for certain activities related to the functioning of PCG, PLLC. For example, we may use or disclose information for quality assurance activities.
- When Required by Law: Applicable law and ethical standards permit us to disclose information about you without your authorization when required by law. PCG, PLLC may disclose or use PHI when necessary to:
  - Report suspected abuse or neglect of a child or vulnerable adult
  - Comply with mandatory government agency (such as psychology board or health department) audits or investigation
  - Comply with court order
  - Report possible professional or sexual misconduct by a named health care professional
  - Prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the health and safety of you or another person. If such information is disclosed, it will be disclosed to a person or persons reasonably able to prevent or lessen the threat, including the target of the threat. If it is to ensure your safety, information may be disclosed to others such as family members, other health care professionals, and/or law enforcement officials.

USES AND DISCLOSURES THAT REQUIRE SPECIFIC AUTHORIZATIONS

We will need your written permission to use your information for any purpose other than those listed above. If you do sign an authorization form that allows using or disclosing your PHI, you can revoke that permission, in writing at any time.

MINORS - PRIVACY AND CONFIDENTIALITY

Parents and legal guardians have a right by law to information in their children’s files. Exceptions are minors who are married or have born a child and those who are living independently and managing their finances.

PRIVACY RIGHTS

- Right to Inspect and Copy: You have the right, which may be restricted only in exceptional circumstances, to inspect and obtain a copy of your PHI. You must make this request in writing. We will respond to your request within three business days. Your right to inspect and copy PHI will be restricted only in those situations in which there is compelling evidence that access would cause serious harm to you. If your request to inspect or obtain a copy of your record is denied, you have the right to have the denial reviewed by a health care professional. We will act upon your request within 30 days. We may charge you a reasonable, cost-based fee for copies.
- Right to Amend: If you feel that the information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information. If you request is denied, you can write a statement of disagreement with the denial that we will keep with your medical information.
- Right to Request Restrictions: You may request that PCG, PLLC not use medical information for treatment, payment or health care operations. You may also request that PCG, PLLC not provide medical information to certain people. However, PCG, PLLC has the right to refuse your request.
- Right of Accounting Disclosures: You may ask us to provide you with information about disclosures of your PHI we made in the past. Requests for accountings will not be made prior to September 5, 2006. Your request can go back six years after September 5, 2006.
- Right to Request Confidential Communication: You may request that PCG, PLLC provide you with your medical information in a confidential manner. For example, you can request we send bills and other mailing to a different address or that we notify you of this kind of information in another way, such as by a telephone call. You must make this request in writing and specify another address or means of communication. We must agree to your written request. You may also ask you to give us information about how you will pay for your bills.
- Right to File a Complaint: If you feel your medical information privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with the Secretary of Health and Human Services and/or your PCG, PLLC privacy official, who is your therapist. Filing a complaint will not affect the quality of the services you receive from PCG, PLLC and you will not be retaliated against for filing a complaint.
The effective date of this notice is May 20, 2008. PCG, PLLC is required by law to maintain the privacy of PHI and provide you with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to PHI. We are required to abide by the terms of this Notice of Privacy Practices. We reserve the right to change the terms of our Notice of Privacy Practices at any time. Any new notice of Privacy Practices will be effective for all PHI that we maintain at the time. We will provide you with a copy of the revised notice by sending a copy to you in the mail upon request or providing one to you at your next appointment.

NOTICE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION / CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT

PCG, PLLC does not discriminate in access to treatment services due to race, color, national origin, sex, creed, handicap or sexual preferences.

POLICY REGARDING MINOR CLIENTS (AGES 17 AND UNDER)

In order to best meet the needs of minor clients and their families, it is our policy to require the presence of a parent or appropriate care provider at the initial appointment of a minor. If a minor resides in a foster home or a residential treatment facility, a written report of developmental history, pertinent information, and reason for referral must be forwarded by the referral resource (usually a county social worker) prior to the initial appointment. Additionally, the minor must be accompanied by a foster parent, social worker, or residential staff person who is knowledgeable about the child and available for consult during the session.

A parent or responsible adult must remain in the building during therapy sessions of any child age 15 and under. During the initial session, the therapist will discuss parental (foster parent or staff) participation in subsequent sessions. We strongly recommend that other siblings do not accompany the parent to the sessions since their presence in the interview may inhibit the sharing of pertinent information or distract from the needs of the minor client. Because we believe that these expectations are in the best interest of minor clients, we may not be able to provide services to minors unless these guidelines are met.

Reminding parents and responsible caregivers of the following:

• Children age 15 and under or any child regardless of age who needs adult supervision should not be left unaccompanied in the reception space.
• A parent or responsible adult must remain on-site for any child 15 years or younger while the child is in session.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE NOTICE

Clients receiving outpatient mental health services have the right to complain if they feel their treatment has not been adequate and/or civil and legal rights have been infringed upon.

You have the right to obtain legal counsel if you feel your civil and legal rights have been denied you.

Complaints regarding the quality and type of treatment you have received should be brought to the attention of the therapist you are working with. If you are unable to resolve the conflict at this point, you have the right to present your complaint to the governing board who licensed the therapist assigned you.

If you continue to feel dissatisfied, you have the right to obtain legal counsel to aid in resolving the complaint.

CLIENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

PCG, PLLC and staff are committed to quality and professional mental health services; you have the responsibility and right:

• To Be Honest: You are responsible for being honest about everything that relates to you and your care. Please tell your therapist how you are feeling about what is happening in your life.

• To Understand Your Treatment Plan: Together with your therapist, the most appropriate treatment diagnosis and individual treatment plan will be developed for your care. You have the responsibility to understand your treatment goals to your own satisfaction. If you do not understand, please ask your therapist. Understanding your treatment plan is important for the success of your treatment. You are responsible for following your treatment plan and informing your therapist of whether or not you can and/or want to follow your plan.

• To Keep Appointments: Because your appointment time has been reserved for only you, we expect you will put a priority on keeping appointments. If is necessary to have at least 24 hour notice so we can offer the time to another client. If an emergency requires less than a 24 hour notice, please inform your therapist at the time of cancellation. Not showing for an appointment will result in the cancellation of future scheduled appointments.

≥ If a pattern of two or more appointment are no shows or non-emergency late cancellations occur, it may result in services being discontinued and a referral made elsewhere for services.

• Guidelines Regarding Children in Sessions: We have an expectation that you will find appropriate care for minor children during your therapy appointment time. Having young children in your sessions may inhibit the sharing of pertinent information and distract you and/or your therapist. While we understand that children may need to accompany you occasionally, it may side track or divert attention from you and your therapeutic goals.

Side 5

THERAPIST RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES
1. A therapist shall limit practice to the areas of competence in which proficiency has been gained through education and training or experience.
2. A therapist shall accurately represent areas of competence, education, training, experience and professional affiliations of the therapist to PCG, PLLC, the public and colleagues.
3. In cases in which an new service, technique or specialty is developing, a therapist shall engage in ongoing consultation with other therapists or similar professionals as skills are developed in the new area and shall seek continuing education which corresponds to the new area. A client whose treatment involves the use of a newly developing service, technique or specialty shall be informed of its innovative nature and of known risks associated with it.
